

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Details:

Name:

David Reaney

Date of birth:

26th January 1962

Home Address:

11 Portadown Road
Armagh
Co Armagh
BT61 9EE

Practice Address:

28 Dungannon Street
Moy
Co Tyrone
BT71 7SH

Contact telephone numbers:

Practice: 028 8778 4977

Home: 028 3752 4594

Mobile 07801439264

Email address:

david@dreaneydental.com

GDC Registration Number 60060

Qualifications:

BDS(Edin) 1985

Part1 MGDS(Edin) 1992

DGDP(UK) – Diploma in General Dental Practice - 1993

Master of Clinical Dentistry –MClinDent- Prosthodontics – London 2003

Certificate in Appraisal of Dental Practices Royal College of Surgeons – London 2005

One year Certificate course in Implant Dentistry – Belfast 2007

Experience

Clinical experience:

Prinipal of a large rural Practice – established 1988 - Present

Associate Dental Surgeon: 1985 - 1988

Clinical attachment in Restorative Dentistry Department,
School of Dentistry, Belfast 1990 – 1992

Teaching experience:

Part-time Clinical Lecturer involved with small group teaching in a tutorial setting and student supervision on clinics in the Department of Restorative Dentistry, School of Dentistry, Belfast. 2000 – 2005

Vocational Trainee Trainer: 1999-2000 & 2004-2005

Other currently held positions:

Dental Advisor Southern Area Trust.

Managing Director of Southern Cross Dental Laboratories Ltd

Managing Director SCDL HealthCare Technologies Ltd

Research:

Practice-based clinical investigation into the use of ozone in the management of early carious lesions. Written up as part of MCLinDent Thesis 2003.

Publications:

MCLinDent thesis 2003: The use of ozone in the management of early carious lesions.

Series of Articles Published in the Irish Dentist Journal :

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part one – Indirect composite inlays and onlays. (September 2008)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part two – Ceramic selection. (November 2008)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part three – Occlusal records (January 2009)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part four - Porcelain – fused – to – metal vs zirconium – based restorations.

(February 2009)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part five – Taking impressions (March 2009)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update: The clinical – laboratory interface

Part six - Finishing and polishing porcelain surfaces chairside. (May 2009)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Technology update:

Pros and cons of porcelain – fused – to – metal vs zirconium based restorations. (2009)

Reaney D, Penn D, Newsome P

Management experience:

As Principal of a five surgery rural general dental practice, there is a considerable management responsibility which includes recruitment and management of staff, health and safety aspects especially in relation to cross-infection control and radiology.

Career goals:

To further develop my role in the management of complex restorative cases applying my knowledge and experience in this area to provide a very high standard of care for those patients' that I treat.

Referees:

Dr Philip Newsome,
Associate Professor,
The Dental Faculty,
The Prince Philip Dental Hospital,
Hospital Road,
Hong Kong.

Professor Edward Lynch
The Department of Restorative Dentistry
The School of Dentistry
The Royal Victoria Hospital
Grosvenor Road
Belfast.

Terms and Conditions

Dental Expert Court Reports

Court reports are provided for all cases involving alleged clinical negligence in general dental practice. Court reports are also provided for personal injury claims where the injury involves damage to the teeth and/or surrounding areas.

Competitive Dental Expert Witness Fees

- £110 per hour for court reports, meetings and answers to questions.
- Court attendances £750 per day or part thereof.

Travel and subsistence

Expenses for travel, subsistence and accommodation are charged on a basis of 4* hotel accommodation, first class rail travel, business class air travel or by car at 38 pence per mile. Time taken for travel is charged at 50% of the above hourly rate.

- All CPR procedures are carefully adhered to
- Time sheets are available for all cases.
- Single Joint Expert instructions are accepted.